

As you look back on your life after 60 years it is amazing who had the most influence and impact on your life and it was hands down for me; it was my father who never taught me anything. I just watch what he did and asked him periodically questions. He always wanted me to discover everything on my own but if I ask him he always told me the truth of what was really happening to me and he dead right every time. One time I came back from college and told him all the new information I discovered and he smile and told me that he had forget more then I will ever learn. My father was first followed by my Godfather, Grandfather, High School Coach, Taoist Friend, Business Associate, Taoist Master, Southern Gentleman, Mother and Godmother. Those are people who made me who I am and I am grateful their time, friendship and kindness.

If any of you have the opportunity and time please read through my list of the most influential people of my life toward my Immortality with my commentary through the following page.

He was a genius in his profession (psychology) and a WWII RAF Bombardier Pilot who had more impact on me than any other person that I ever met by a thousand times. He taught me how to live on this planet by his example. I learned so many little things from what life is and how to live it who was always under control and an officer and gentleman, sharp dresser & class guy. He also gave me my greatest joy in my life horseback riding around the world with El Zorro as the International Rough Rider, the El Dorado Kid - the Child of the Promised Land.)

(An amazing Southern gentleman with deep southern brawl who opened my horizons on life & my own happiness. I met him at Shangri-La Fasting Institute when he was passing out anti-Jew info to the Jews & I thought he was crazy. He asked me to go with him to Georgia at his brick house in the swamp (1st Idea for Wu Chi Acres) because his wife was staying longer. I told I had to get back to Detroit & could not go. Then he asked me if I knew what a Krugerand was? He said it is an Africa gold coin & if I want to see one? Sure, so we went to the parking lot & he opened his trunk & there was $40,000 of gold & silver in his trunk with a shotgun. I said I could make some phone calls & I would be happy to visit his home in Georgia. He told me of many stories of life & learning to deal with it ("The first woman you marry you marry with your picker & the 2nd one with your head." His 1st wife causes him so much pain & suffering he left his CEO job for 3 months & sat in a log cabin for rest to think things out then went back & straighten out his life & divorced his wife.) We had a 20-year friendship before he died.)
- 9) Mary Weston (3/7/24-3/21/91) (P) Underdog - Wood/Rat (C) 3 of Spades - Mother, English Teacher, Librarian, Housewife
(She was the person I came to for any of my problems or joys that I had as I had no one else. She was named after the Matriarch (The Blessed Virgin Mary) so my life was complete with no complications they were the ones I went for everything. It helped my situation because my mother was kind, giving, understanding & patience to my every need; and the reason I survived my father (the meanest man I ever met). I shared more with her than anyone I ever met and when she died I lost my closest friend. She was my inspiration, "Who inspires the one who inspires everyone?" My Mother! Even to this day after over twenty years every time I think of her tears come to my eyes.)
- 10) Ann Purrenhage (1/13/36) (P) Workaholic - Wood/Boar (C) Ace of Spades - Mother, Grade School Teacher, Housewife
(She was my godmother & a very attractive, intelligent, sensitive person who took the time to be with my family and me in fifties & sixties when I was growing up. I really liked being her godson & loved talking & being with her. She was like my mother but different with her own point of view. She had a tremendous respect for my mother. I am happy I can still talked to her by phone to reconnect with my mother's energy & compassion (She has it).)
